An Introduction to RDI
Relationship Development Intervention

Laura DeAngelo A.B., MBA
Certified RDI Consultant

November 24, 2009, 7 P.M
Farmington Community Center
321 New Britain Avenue, Unionville

RDI is an approach to treating autism or similar disabilities by teaching the parent or caregiver specific techniques to help the child with their social connectiveness, increase their desire to have social relationships, and being able to be more adaptable.

Laura practices through Autism Family Services in Avon.
